THEMES FOR FUTURE ISSUES: Below are possible themes for future issues – please mark each of these from 5 (strongly support) to 0 (not interested). Remember that issues are already planned on Chronic poverty (October 2005) and Ecological urbanization (April 2006).

Mark (0-5)	Theme
	Addressing discrimination in cities – by gender, age or race
	Finance for poverty reduction; the role of loans and subsidies
	Addressing disease burdens (with a particular focus on HIV/AIDS, malaria and tuberculosis) or
	A whole issue on HIV/AIDS
	Mobility and migration; supporting people’s search for homes and livelihoods
	Reducing disaster risk and vulnerability in cities
	What scope for pro-poor employment generation?
	Climate change and cities in low- and middle-income nations
	Achieving a just rule of law in cities, including combating corruption
	Injury prevention
	Making city–region interactions more ecologically sustainable
	Can globally competitive cities avoid pollution and mass evictions?
	What constitutes good governance for cities; drawing on the views and experiences of mayors and other local politicians?

Suggestions for future themes:

How much do you use the web-based search facility for ENVIRONMENT AND URBANIZATION (at <http://eandu.poptel.org.uk/>), and any comments about it:
