

Schedule 1A

SOCIAL JUSTICE IN FORESTRY

FOREST GOVERNANCE LEARNING GROUP - GHANA

DETAILED WORK PLAN JANUARY 2011 – DECEMBER 2011 (updated May 2011)

What	When	Who, how
Convene strategic meeting of FGLG country team to select governance targets, drivers and fine-tune 2011 work plan	January 2011	Core Group (6 key people – see 2010-13 framework plan), face-to-face meetings and specific actions and commitments for each member
Hold 4 Core Group Meetings	January, April, July, October	Civic Response organises Core Group meetings
Hold 2 Reference Group (see 2010-13 framework plan) Meetings	May, November	Core Group works together to convene Reference Group (up to 20 people) to include those in specific cross-cutting groups e.g. CSO REDD Working Group (REDDgh), Peasant Farmers Association of Ghana (PFAG), Network for Womens Rights (NETRIGHT) Ghana Timber Millers Organisation (GTMO) Forest Watch Ghana (FWG) Parliamentary Select Committee on Lands and Natural Resources (PSC)... Membership of the Reference Group will be modified as circumstances and priority issues evolve.
Develop and sustain informal engagement of stakeholder leaders from government, industry, donor community, civil society organisations	January - December	Interactions - through informal meetings, remote communications and memos where necessary – amongst Core Group members between meetings, and with Reference Group members and others where necessary, to generate informal commitments and means to take issues forward. Core Group keeping notes to track this process.

Produce governance learning products: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • At least 4 presentations of information and analyses to FGLG participants on governance targets • At least 2 analytical briefs for Reference Group members on issues arising from FGLG deliberations • At least 4 policy briefs targeting governance reform players (to be relevant for FGLG teams and other groups outside of Ghana too) on, for example: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. UNFCCC COP 16 outcomes and happenings on the international scene 2. FLEGT meets REDD 3. Local institutional capacity and REDD in Ghana. (With reference to national and sub-national institutions) 4. Tenure and rights in the face of new forest investments. (Forest Investment Program -FIP of the World Bank) 5. Multiple donor initiatives in the forest sector and forest governance reform 6. Locally controlled FIP; securing community concerns and exploring local institutional capacity 7. Local impacts of the VPA implementation 8. Any theme in the sector that requires attention and engagement. 	March - December	Civic Response works with Core Group to ensure: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Presentations (x4) to ‘fuel’ the thinking of the Core Group and Reference Groups are made • Briefings (x2) are written and disseminated to the Reference Group • Initial homework, then development within the Core Group, then drafting of policy briefs is carried out. The Reference Group’s validates findings before publication – then stakeholder briefings and press/media releases are organised. The Core Group follows-up on each of the themes.
Conduct follow-up advocacy actions using FGLG Ghana governance learning products	April - December	Civic Response works with Core Group to ensure next steps are clear and to capture/record what happens. For each main issue tackled – the clear path for action is identified which shows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Where the capacity/preparedness to take action lies and who takes the next steps • How commitment to building momentum in each issue continues to be generated • A record of who has done and changed what in the process and how this tracking and recording will be continued

Participate in FGLG learning events and other cross-country exchange events	June – December	Core Group and/or Reference Group members depending on priority issues and arrangements made in liaison with IIED and other FGLG country teams.
Provide narrative and financial reports	July 2011 and January 2012	Civic Response provides these reports as per contractual obligations. The contents of the narrative report are widely shared by Civic Response.
Participate in FGLG International Learning Event	December	Members of the Core Group participate – numbers according to availability of members and funds as appropriate to theme, location and date when finalised in liaison with IIED and other FGLG country teams.