

Contents

Foreword
Camilla Toulmin .....	3
Editorial.....	5
From rapid to reflective: 25 years of Participatory Learning and Action
Robert Chambers .....	12
1. The multifaceted impacts of P3DM: experiences from the Solomon Islands
Antonella Piccolella with James Hardcastle and Jimmy Kereseke .....	15
2. Making the invisible visible: how was famine averted in Southern Africa?
Christopher Eldridge .....	27
3. Sustainable animal welfare: community-led action for improving care and livelihoods
Lisa van Dijk, SK Pradhan, Murad Ali and Ramesh Ranjan .....	37
4. Participatory digital map-making in arid areas of Kenya and Tanzania
Tom Rowley .....	51
5. Prejudice and participation: claiming rights to community forests in Nepal
Govinda Prasad Acharya and Pramod Jaiswal .....	67
6. Increasing women's incomes, increasing peace: unexpected lessons from Niger
Jindra Cekan .....	75
7. Reflections on participatory HIV prevention research with fishing communities, Uganda
Peter Kayiira Byansi, Paul Bukuluki, Janet Seeley, Pontiano Kaleebu, Leslie Nielsen, Kidega William, Simon Sigirenda, Kalinda Jimmy, Rebecca Nabbosa and David Walugembe .....	83

8.	Can we define ethical standards for participatory work? John Rowley with Marilyn Doyle, Susie Hay and the Participatory Practitioners for Change (PPFC) members .....	91
9.	Whose public spaces? Citizen participation in urban planning in Santiago, Chile Viviana Fernández Prajoux .....	101
10.	Tools for measuring change: self-assessment by communities Bernward Causemann and Eberhard Gohl .....	113
	In touch .....	123
	RCPLA .....	143
	RCPLA and PLA: two sides of the same coin Tom Thomas .....	145
	Beyond RCPLA Lisa Van Dijk and Passinte Isaak .....	147
	RCPLA Network pages .....	151