

Mondulkiri Protected Forest

SWA Project Phase Two, 2006-2009 - Future Developments

Protected Area Management

- Upgrading of protected area infrastructure and equipment
- Wildlife monitoring, research, and law enforcement
- Training and capacity building for local communities and government staff

Community Extension

- Socio-economic surveys and land-use mapping
- Strengthening community participation in conservation and Natural resource management
- Developing community conservation agreements
- Participatory zoning and protected area management planning

Ecotourism Development

- Establishing ecotourism management board
- Constructing tourist infrastructure
- Developing ecotourism management plan and benefit-sharing mechanism
- Creating employment opportunities for local communities

for a living planet®